

FORM MA-T

MUNICIPAL ADVISOR TEMPORARY REGISTRATION FORM

General Instructions

Note: Beginning on October 1, 2010, Section 15B(a)(1)(B) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 makes it unlawful for a municipal advisor to provide advice to or on behalf of a municipal entity or obligated person with respect to municipal financial products or the issuance of municipal securities, or to undertake a solicitation of a municipal entity or obligated person, unless the municipal advisor is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. See Glossary for definitions of terms used in Form MA-T and in these instructions.

Read these instructions carefully before filing Form MA-T. Failure to follow these instructions or properly complete the form may result in temporary registration as a municipal advisor being delayed or rejected.

1. What is Form MA-T?

Form MA-T provides for temporary registration by municipal advisors.

2. Where can I get Form MA-T?

Form MA-T is available on the SEC's website: www.sec.gov/ .

3. When must Form MA-T be used?

Municipal advisors use Form MA-T to:

- File initial temporary registration as a municipal advisor with the Securities and Exchange Commission
- Amend those temporary registrations
- Withdraw from temporary registration

4. What is the deadline for filing Form MA-T for temporary registration?

Current municipal advisors must file Form MA-T by October 1, 2010. These municipal advisors should allow enough time to establish an account and obtain access credentials (username and password) and complete the on-line version of the Form by that date. Any person who desires to become a municipal advisor after October 1, 2010 should file Form MA-T before providing advice to a municipal entity or obligated person.

5. When is a municipal advisor required to update its Form MA-T?

A municipal advisor must amend the Form MA-T promptly if information provided in response to Items 1 or 3 becomes inaccurate in any way. Failure to update Form MA-T, as required by this instruction, is a violation of SEC rule 15Ba2-6T and could lead to revocation of a municipal advisor's temporary registration.

6. Where and how do I sign Form MA-T?

Form MA-T must be signed with the typed name of the municipal advisor and of the name and title of the signer on the appropriate lines in Item 4.

7. Who must sign Form MA-T?

The individual who signs the form depends upon the form of organization of the municipal advisor:

- For a sole proprietorship, the sole proprietor should sign.
- For a partnership, a general partner should sign.
- For a corporation, an authorized principal officer should sign.
- For all others, an authorized individual who participates in managing or directing the municipal advisor's affairs should sign.

8. How do I file Form MA-T?

Complete Form MA-T using the Commission's public website (<[www.sec.gov/\[____\]](http://www.sec.gov/[____])>). Follow the detailed instructions available on the website.

In order to begin filling out Form MA-T, it will be necessary to establish an account and obtain access credentials (username and password) with the SEC's temporary registration system. A submitter will need to fill out general user information fields such as name, address, phone number, e-mail address, organization name and employer identification number, and user account information (i.e., select a username and password), and to select and answer a security question. Once accepted by the temporary registration system, the submitter will receive an e-mail notification that the account has been established and the submitter will be able to access and complete Form MA-T. The Commission anticipates that submitters will ordinarily obtain access credentials the same day that they are requested.

However, to avoid the possibility of delay, the Commission encourages submitters to file Form MA-T prior to the initial October 1, 2010 submission deadline.

9. May I partially complete Form MA-T and save it to finish later?

No. Persons who submit Form MA-T must complete the electronic file at one sitting, because partially completed work cannot be saved. They may print out a paper copy of Form MA-T from the Commission's website and use it to ensure that they have all information necessary before completing the form on-line.

10. Are there filing fees?

No.

11. Whom may I contact with questions about filing Form MA-T?

You may call the SEC Division of Trading and Markets' Office of Interpretation and Guidance at (202) 551-5777 or e-mail tradingandmarkets@sec.gov.

Federal Information Law and Requirements

Section 15B(a) the Securities Exchange Act [15 U.S.C. § 78o-4(a)] authorizes the SEC to collect the information required by Form MA-T. The SEC collects the information for regulatory purposes. Filing Form MA-T is mandatory for municipal advisors who are required to register with the SEC. The SEC maintains the information submitted on this form and makes it publicly available. The SEC will not accept forms that do not include required information.

SEC's Collection of Information

An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to, a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid control number. The Securities Exchange Act authorizes the SEC to collect the information on Form MA-T from applicants. See 15 U.S.C. § 78o-4. Filing the form is mandatory.

The main purpose of this form is to enable the SEC to provide for the temporary registration of municipal advisors. Every applicant for temporary registration with the SEC as a municipal advisor must file the form. See 17 C.F.R. § 240.15Ba2-6T. By accepting Form MA-T, however, the SEC does not make a finding that it has been completed or submitted correctly. The form is filed initially by every municipal advisor, no later than October 1, 2010. It is also filed promptly during the year to reflect changes to the information in Items 1 or 3 and when a municipal advisor wishes to withdraw from temporary registration. See 17 C.F.R. § 240.15Ba2-6T. The SEC maintains the information on the form and makes it publicly available through the SEC's public website.

Anyone may send the SEC comments on the accuracy of the burden estimate on page 1 of the form, as well as suggestions for reducing the burden. The Office of Management and Budget has reviewed this collection of information under 44 U.S.C. § 3507.

The information contained in the form is part of a system of records subject to the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended. The SEC has published in the Federal Register the Privacy Act System of Records Notice for these records.
