    <TR>
      <TD vAlign=3Dtop>The criteria used for selecting successful = proposals will=20
      be as follows: approach, objectives and need for assistance,=20 organizational profiles, evaluation and budget and budget = justification.=20
      The needs of target populations to be served and the needs of = communities=20
      to be served are factors for evaluating the objectives and need = for=20
      assistance of the applicant. The staff and position data and past=20 experience are factors used to evaluate the organizational profile =
of the=20
      applicant. Applicants will be evaluated under the budget and = budget=20
      justification criteria on the extent to which they include a = budget that=20
      is clear, easy to understand, and provides a detailed = justification for=20 the amount requested. Under the approach criterion, applicants are = evaluated on the extent to which the specific goals and activities =
of the=20
      proposed project are highly innovative, reasonable , quantified, = and=20
      directly support the authorized activities outlined in the = legislation.=20
      The official evaluation criteria will be published as a part of = the=20
      program announcement, which will be posted at www.grants.gov and=20 www.acf.hhs.gov/healthymarriage/index.html. Applications for = discretionary=20
      grants are subject to a competitive peer review process leading to =
