Department of Homeland Security Traveler Redress Inquiry Program (DHS TRIP)

Thank you for contacting the Department of Homeland Security Traveler Redress Inquiry Program (DHS TRIP). DHS TRIP is a single point of contact for U.S and non-U.S citizens who have inquiries or seek resolution regarding difficulties they experience during their travel while undergoing screening at transportation hubs, such as airports and train stations, or while crossing U.S. borders.

If your concern relates solely to a belief that your personal information has been misused or that your civil rights have been violated, you may skip to Section II of this form.

An electronic application may be submitted at www.dhs.gov/TRIP and may be significantly faster.

Submitting the DHS TRIP Application:

An electronic application may be submitted at www.dhs.gov/TRIP, and may be significantly faster.

- 1. On behalf of another person: DHS TRIP requires a DHS Form 590 Authorization to Release Information to Another Person designating a representative for the traveler. U.S. privacy laws prohibit any discussion about this case absent the traveler's express written consent. To represent the traveler, please instruct the traveler to complete and return the DHS Form 590. The G-28 is not used by this program. To obtain a copy of this form please visit <http://www.dhs.gov/step-2-how-use-dhs-trip>.
- 2. Family Applying for Redress: DHS TRIP cannot accept family applications for any reason. Each person in a family that is seeking redress must submit a separate application along with a copy of a valid, unexpired travel document, e.g., passport. If the applicant is a minor (i.e., a child under age 18), a parent may apply on their behalf; however, the information provided in the application must be specific to the child seeking redress. Each redress requestor may also apply online by visiting: www.dhs.gov/trip. A parent is not required to complete a DHS Form 590.
- 3. Required Documents: The traveler applying for redress must attest under penalty of perjury that the facts stated in the application for redress are true and correct. The applicant must sign the document to continue with the application; it cannot be signed on behalf of someone unless the application is for a minor. Please sign the appended document and include your Redress Control Number at the top of the form (if available). In addition, our program requires the submission of at least one government issued photograph-bearing travel document. In each document, DHS TRIP must be able to discern your facial features, and the information must be legible. It is strongly recommended that travelers submit a copy of a passport since it is required for international travel. Please note that our program does not accept expired travel documents. In the case of a child, we advise parents to submit a copy of the child's birth certificate. Do not send the original document. Please note that the provision of the identity document is a program requirement that DHS TRIP cannot waive. If, the traveler only selects the Privacy box in Section II, no documents are required; however, if further review is needed, having documents will significantly accelerate the process.
