Dear Resident:

We are following up on a letter we sent regarding a study, the National Survey on Drug Use and Health* (NSDUH), sponsored by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. If you have recently completed the online questions, thank you and please disregard this letter.

Your address was randomly chosen, through scientific methods, along with almost 200,000 others across the country. RTI International, a nonprofit organization, was selected to conduct this study. Since 1971, this study has been a trusted source of data used by local, state, and national agencies for planning and support for education, treatment and prevention programs related to substance use and mental health. We want you to have a chance to be included in the study. We cannot substitute your address with another address.

Please take a few minutes today to answer a few general questions online. These general questions will determine whether zero, one, or two household members aged 12 or older will be selected to complete the full interview. Everyone who is selected for and completes the full interview will receive $30.

If you choose to participate, please follow the steps below. Please share this information with any others in your household.

You must be a resident of this household and 18 years of age or older to participate
