

Dissemination Dates:

Recipients/Channels:

Subject Line: Training Materials to Prepare for Cases

[Greeting]

Take your training to prepare for cases.

Thank you for participating in the Training Experience Survey. Your input informs ILSAA about your experience related to helping Afghan Arrivals and your results play a crucial role in identifying areas where you may need additional training and resources.

Based on the results of this survey, we have provided you with a set of customized training materials and resources to review. These materials are focused on these topics:

- USCIS Best Practices
- Humanitarian Parole
- Affirmative Asylum
- SIV
- Basics of Relative Petitions (I-130/I-730)
- Special Topics
 - Unaccompanied Children
 - TRIG
 - Polygamy

STEP 1: Review materials on the topics. If you are already familiar with these topics, please feel free to jump in to taking the knowledge assessments.

STEP 2: Take the attached Knowledge Assessment for each topic. A score of 80% is required for completion.

Please note, this is a general inbox, and this email account is not monitored by attorneys. Any communication from this email account is solely for information purposes and does not serve as legal advice or create an attorney-client relationship. Do not submit confidential or time-sensitive information to this email address. USCRI received competitive funding through the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Contract #140D0423C0027. The ILSAA project is 100 percent supported by federal funds.

Contact us: ILSAAinfo@icf.com

STEP 3: Send back knowledge assessment tests to ILSAAinfo@icf.com, wait for your score, and next steps for you to take on assigned cases.

We ask that you review the materials and take the assessments within the next 2 weeks.

We appreciate your dedication to assisting Afghan arrivals. All materials will be available for your reference. If you need further support, please reach out to us.

Sincerely,

The ILSAA Team

DRAFT

Please note, this is a general inbox, and this email account is not monitored by attorneys. Any communication from this email account is solely for information purposes and does not serve as legal advice or create an attorney-client relationship. Do not submit confidential or time-sensitive information to this email address. USCRI received competitive funding through the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Administration for Children and Families, Contract #140D0423C0027. The ILSAA project is 100 percent supported by federal funds.

Contact us: ILSAAinfo@icf.com