Overview

I-485, Application To Register Permanent Residence Or Adjust Status

Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status, is for a person in the United States to apply for lawful permanent resident status (often referred to as a "Green Card").

1 You can only file online for certain eligibility categories

You can only file Form I-485 online as part of a concurrently filed adjustment of status package for immediate family. If you are eligible under another category, you must file a paper Form I-485. Learn more about eligibility categories.

1 Before You Start Your Application

Eligibility

You must be physically present in the United States to file this application. Additional eligibility requirements for adjustment of status may vary depending on the immigrant category in which you are applying. Learn more about adjustment of status eligibility categories.

You may apply as the person who directly qualifies for an immigrant category ("principal applicant") or, in some cases, as the spouse or the child of a principal applicant ("derivative applicant"). Whether you are a principal or derivative applicant, you must file your own Form I-485.

Under U.S. immigration law, you are a "child" if you are unmarried, under 21 years of age, and meet the definition of "child" found in the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) and USCIS policy guidance. You may still be considered a child for immigration purposes even after turning 21 years of age if you qualify under the provisions of the Child Status Protection Act (CSPA) or other applicable provisions. Learn more about the CSPA.

Who May Not Be Eligible to Adjust Status?

Bars to Adjustment of Status

You are generally ineligible for adjustment of status under INA section 245(a) if one or more adjustment bars in the INA apply to you. See INA sections 245(a), (c), (d), and/or (e).

Exception Under INA section 245(i)

You may be able to adjust status under INA section 245(i) even if you are present in the United States without inspection and admission or parole, or are subject to one or more adjustment bars at INA section 245(c). Learn more about adjusting status under INA section 245\(i\). INA section 245(i) is not an immigrant category. In order to adjust status using INA section 245(i), you must be eligible for an immigrant visa under a family-based, employment-based, special immigrant, or Diversity Visa category.

Grounds of Inadmissibility

Immigration laws specify acts, conditions, and conduct that can make aliens ineligible for lawful permanent resident status. These acts, conditions, and conduct are outlined in INA section 212(a) and are called grounds of inadmissibility. For more information on the grounds of inadmissibility for specific immigrant categories, visit our USCIS Policy Manual page. If you are inadmissible, you may be eligible for a waiver of the ground of inadmissibility or another form of relief. If we approve your waiver application or grant another form of relief, USCIS may approve your application to adjust status, if you are otherwise eligible.

When Should I File Form I-485?

Principal Applicant

In general, if you are filing as a beneficiary of an immigrant visa petition (such as Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, Form I-140, Immigrant Petition for Alien Workers, or Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant), you may file an adjustment application only after USCIS has approved your petition and an immigrant visa number is immediately available. There are, however, some immigrant categories that allow you to file Form I-485 before USCIS approves your petition (this is known as "concurrent filing"), provided that approval of the petition would make an immigrant visa number immediately available to you and you meet all other filing and eligibility requirements. Learn more about concurrent filing.

If you want to learn more about visas, you can visit our USCIS page for information on visa availability, or you can visit the Department of State \(DOS\) page to view the Visa Bulletin.

Derivative Adjustment Applicant

If you are currently the spouse or child of a principal applicant, you may file Form I-485 if an immigrant visa is immediately available to you and you meet all filing requirements. You may file at any of the following times:

- At the same time the principal applicant files Form I-485;
- After the principal applicant filed a Form I-485 that remains pending a final decision by USCIS;
- After USCIS approves the principal applicant's Form I-485, if the principal applicant is still a lawful permanent resident and if, at the time of the principal applicant's Form I-485 approval, you were the principal applicant's spouse or child; or
- After the principal applicant obtained an immigrant visa and entered the United States as a lawful permanent resident if the principal applicant is still a lawful permanent resident and, at the time of the principal applicant's entry, you were the principal applicant's spouse or child.

Generally, USCIS cannot approve your Form I-485 as a derivative applicant until the principal applicant obtains lawful permanent resident status. USCIS may approve an adjustment application for a U nonimmigrant, asylee, or refugee derivative before the principal applicant obtains lawful permanent resident status.

Form G-325A, Biographic Information

Form G-325A is no longer required. You do not need to submit a separate Form G-325A with this Form I-485.

Family-based applicants

Immediate Relative of a U.S. Citizen (Spouses, Unmarried Children Under 21 Years of Age, and Parents (if the U.S. Citizen is 21 Years of Age or Older)) (Form I-130)

If you are an immediate relative, you may file your Form I-485 together with your Form I-130, while Form I-130 is pending, or after your Form I-130 is approved.

If the petitioning relative (your spouse, your son/daughter/or parent) became a U.S. citizen after filing Form I-130 on your behalf, submit evidence of the petitioning relative's U.S. citizenship with your Form I-485. Visit our Checklist of Required Initial Evidence for Form I-485 page for information on required initial evidence for Form I-485 for immediate relatives.

Note: Derivative applicants are not allowed in this category.

Other Relative of a U.S. Citizen or Relative of a Lawful Permanent Resident Under the Family-Based Preference Categories (Form I-130)

Family-based preference categories include:

- Unmarried sons and daughters (21 years of age and older) of U.S. citizens;
- Spouses;
- Unmarried children (under 21 years of age) and unmarried sons and daughters (21 years of age and older) of lawful permanent residents;
- Married sons and daughters of U.S. citizens; and
- Brothers and sisters of U.S. citizens (if the U.S. citizen is 21 years of age or older).

If an immigrant visa is immediately available, you may file your Form I-485 together with your Form I-130, while Form I-130 is pending, or after your Form I-130 is approved. Otherwise, you may file your Form I-485 only after your Form I-130 is approved and an immigrant visa is immediately available.

If the spouse or parent who filed the Form I-130 on your behalf becomes a U.S. citizen while your Form I-485 is pending, submit evidence of the spouse or parent's U.S. citizenship to the USCIS office with jurisdiction over your application.

If you are an unmarried son or daughter and your parent became a U.S. citizen after filing Form I-130 on your behalf, you normally would automatically convert to an immigrant preference category as an unmarried son or daughter of a U.S. citizen. However, you may opt out of the automatic conversion and stay in the immigrant preference category as an unmarried son or daughter of a lawful permanent resident. Visit our Child Status Protection Act \(CSPA\) page for more information on opting out of the automatic conversion.

Visit our Checklist of Required Initial Evidence for Form I-485 page for information on required initial evidence for Form I-485 for family-based preference category applicants.

Person Admitted to the United States as a Fiancé(e) or Child of a Fiancé(e) of a U.S. Citizen (Form I-129F) (K-1/K-2 Nonimmigrant)

K-1 principals who marry their U.S. citizen I-129F petitioners within the requisite 90-day period after admission to the United States in K-1 status, and their K-2 children always have an immigrant visa immediately available, and therefore, can file Form I-485 as soon as the K-1 principal has married the U.S. citizen.

You must submit a copy of the marriage certificate to show that the K-1 nonimmigrant fiancé(e) married the U.S. citizen (Form I-129F petitioner) in the 90-day period. This additional requirement applies to both K-1 principal and K-2 derivative applicants.

Widow or Widower of a U.S. Citizen

If you are the widow(er) of a deceased individual who was a U.S. citizen at the time of death, you may be eligible to file Form I-485.

If your U.S. citizen spouse did not file Form I-130 for you before their death, you may file Form I-360, Petition for Amerasian, Widow(er), or Special Immigrant, as long as you file Form I-360 no more than two years after the date your spouse died. You may file your Form I-485 together with your Form I-360, while your Form I-360 is pending, or after your Form I-360 is approved. Widow(er)s always have an immigrant visa immediately available once Form I-360 is approved.

Your U.S. citizen spouse may have filed Form I-130 for you before their death. In this case, you may file Form I-485 while Form I-130 is pending or after it is approved. If Form I-130 is approved, it will be considered an approved Form I-360.

When filing your Form I-485, you should provide a copy of the Form I-797, Approval Notice or Receipt for the Form I-130 filed on your behalf or the Form I-360 you filed (unless you are filing Form I-360 together with your Form I-485).

If You Leave the United States While Your Application Is Pending

If you are applying for adjustment of status under INA section 245, and you travel anywhere outside the United States (including brief visits to Canada or Mexico) while your application is pending, USCIS will consider your application as abandoned unless:

- Before you leave the United States, you obtain an Advance Parole Document by filing Form I-131, you depart and return to a Port of Entry, you are inspected and admitted or paroled upon your return;
- You are an H-1B/H-4, L, V, or K3/K4 nonimmigrant who is maintaining lawful nonimmigrant status and you return with a valid H-1B/H-4, L, V, or K3/K4 nonimmigrant visa (if required); or
- You are a temporary protected status (TPS) beneficiary who travels with authorization under INA section 244(f)(3) and upon returning, you are inspected and admitted into TPS.

Penalties

If you knowingly and willfully falsify or conceal a material fact or submit a false document with your Form I-485, we will deny your Form I-485 and may deny any other immigration benefit. In addition, you will face severe penalties provided by law and may be subject to criminal prosecution.

Fee

We will automatically calculate the cost for you before you submit your application. For specific information about fees applicable to this form, see Form G-1055.

Fee waiver: If the form you want to file is eligible for a fee waiver, and you would like to request one, you must file by paper. If you are requesting a fee waiver, you cannot file online. You must file a paper version of both the Form I-912, Request for Fee Waiver and the form for the specific benefit you are requesting. You can review the fee waiver guidance at www.uscis.gov/feewaiver.

Refund policy: USCIS does not refund fees, regardless of any action we take on your application, petition, or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. By continuing this transaction, you acknowledge that you must submit fees in the exact amount and that you are paying the fees for a government service. Please refer to the instructions for the form(s) you are filing for additional information, or you may call the USCIS Contact Center at 800-375-5283. For TTY (deaf or hard of hearing) 800-767-1833.

Documents you may need

We will automatically determine which documents you should provide us as you fill out your application. At the time of filing, you must submit all evidence and supporting documentation listed.

You must submit all evidence requested in these instructions with your application. If you fail to submit required evidence, USCIS may reject or deny your application in accordance with 8 CFR 103.2(b)(1).

If you are unable to submit the required primary evidence (for example, a birth certificate or marriage certificate), you may provide secondary evidence (for example, church or school records) instead if you can explain why the primary evidence is unavailable. If you cannot submit secondary evidence, you may submit two or more affidavits, sworn to or affirmed by individuals who are not parties to the immigration benefit sought and who have direct personal knowledge of the event and circumstances. You must also explain why primary and secondary evidence are unavailable in accordance with 8 CFR 103.2(b)(2).

Biometric services appointment

USCIS may require you to appear for an interview or provide biometrics (fingerprints, photograph, and/or signature) at any time to verify your identity, obtain additional information, and conduct background and security checks, including a check of criminal history records maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), before making a decision on your application or petition. If we determine that a biometric services appointment is necessary, we will send you an appointment notice with the date, time, and location of your appointment. If you are currently overseas, your notice will instruct you to contact a U.S. Embassy, U.S. Consulate, or USCIS office outside the United States to schedule an appointment.

At your biometrics appointment, you must sign an oath reaffirming that:

1. You provided or authorized all information in the application;
2. You reviewed and understood all of the information contained in, and submitted with, your application; and
3. All of this information was complete, true, and correct at the time of filing.

If you do not attend your biometric services appointment, we may deny your application.

For applicants and dependents who appear before an immigration judge, failure to attend a biometric services appointment, without good cause, may result in the immigration judge finding that your application was abandoned, and USCIS may also deny any other application you filed with USCIS.

Disability Accommodations/Modifications

To request a disability accommodation/modification, follow the instructions on your appointment notice or on the Disability Accommodations for the Public page.

Selective Service

Most males between 18 and 26 years of age are required by the Military Selective Service Act to register with the Selective Service System. Learn more on our Selective Service System page. If USCIS approves your application, we will send your name, current address, Social Security number, date of birth, and the date you filed the application to the Selective Service System for registration.

Do you have an Alien Registration Number (A-Number)?

Yes

No

What is your A-Number?

The A-Number is an immigration file number provided by U.S. immigration officials. We use your A-Number to identify your immigration records. It is a 7 to 9-digit number that begins with an "A" and can be found on correspondence or cards you have received from DHS, USCIS, or on immigration court records (for example, Form I-797, Receipt Notice; an Employment Authorization Document; a Permanent Resident Card). If you do not have an A-Number, USCIS may assign one to you.

A-

Provide a 7, 8, or 9-digit number. If the A-Number is fewer than 9 digits, the system will automatically add zero(s) after the "A" and before the first digit so there is a total of 9 digits, for example: A-001234567.

Have you ever used, or been assigned, any other A-Number?

Yes

No

Provide all of your other A-Numbers.

A-

Provide a 7, 8, or 9-digit number. If the A-Number is fewer than 9 digits, the system will automatically add zero(s) after the "A" and before the first digit so there is a total of 9 digits, for example: A-001234567.

+ Add A-Number

What is your USCIS Online Account Number?

You will only have an Online Account Number, or OAN, if you previously filed a form that has a receipt number that begins with IOE. If you filed the form online, you can find your OAN in your account profile. If you mailed us the form, you can find your OAN at the top of the Account Access Notice we sent you.

If you do not have a receipt number that begins with IOE, you do not have an OAN.

(The OAN is not the same as an A-Number.)

I do not have or know my USCIS Online Account Number.

Provide a 12-digit Online Account Number.

Country

Country dropdown menu

State or province

State or province text input

City or town

City or town text input

When did you marry your current spouse?

MM/DD/YYYY date input

Is your current spouse applying with you?

Yes

No

What is your current spouse's A-Number?

The A-Number is an immigration file number provided by U.S. immigration officials. We use your A-Number to identify your immigration records. It is a 7 to 9-digit number that begins with an "A" and can be found on correspondence or cards you have received from DHS, USCIS, or on immigration court records (for example, Form I-797, Receipt Notice; an Employment Authorization Document; a Permanent Resident Card). If you do not have an A-Number, USCIS may assign one to you.

Where to find your A-Number

I do not have or know my current spouse's A-Number.

A- text input

Provide a 7, 8, or 9-digit number. If the A-Number is fewer than 9 digits, the system will automatically add zero(s) after the "A" and before the first digit so there is a total of 9 digits, for example: A-001234567.

What is your current spouse's U.S. Social Security number (SSN)?

I do not know my current spouse's U.S. Social Security number.

SSN text input

Provide a 9-digit Social Security number.

What is your child's A-Number?

The A-Number is an immigration file number provided by U.S. immigration officials. We use your A-Number to identify your immigration records. It is a 7 to 9-digit number that begins with an "A" and can be found on correspondence or cards you have received from DHS, USCIS, or on immigration court records (for example, Form I-797, Receipt Notice; an Employment Authorization Document; a Permanent Resident Card). If you do not have an A-Number, USCIS may assign one to you.

Where to find your A-Number

I do not have or know my child's A-Number.

Provide a 7, 8, or 9-digit number. If the A-Number is fewer than 9 digits, the system will automatically add zero(s) after the "A" and before the first digit so there is a total of 9 digits, for example: A-001234567.

What is your child's U.S. Social Security number (SSN)?

I do not have or know my child's U.S. Social Security number.

Provide a 9-digit Social Security number.

What is your child's relationship to you?

For example: biological child, stepchild, legally adopted child.

Is this child also applying now on a separate Form I-485?

Yes

No
